- Initial offering period (IOP) runs from 9 to 13 November 2026, with ADX listing expected on 19 November 2026

Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates; 9 November 2026: The Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange (ADX) is set to broaden investor access to US equities through the planned cross-listing of the GQG US Equity ETF (GQGU), managed by GQG Partners. The listing will bring the region's largest and most active ETF marketplace to 27 funds, providing investors with greater access to innovative and differentiated international investment opportunities.

The cross-listing of the GQG US Equity ETF, which currently trades on NYSE Arca, will provide UAE investors and member markets on the Tabadul network with direct access to GQG Partners' US equity strategy. The initial offering period is scheduled to run from 9 to 13 November 2026, with the ETF expected to list on ADX on 19 November 2026.

Managed by GQG Partners, the fund focuses on high-quality, attractively priced companies with sustainable competitive advantages, durable earnings, and long-term compounding potential, while seeking to actively manage downside risk. The GQG US Equity ETF held US$ 473million in assets under management (AUM) as of 5 November 2026, and its current top holdings include Nvidia, Microsoft, Apple, Alphabet, and Amazon.

GQG Partners is a boutique investment management firm founded in 2016 that provides global, international, emerging-markets and US equity portfolios for institutions, advisors and individual investors worldwide. The firm is headquartered in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, with offices in Abu Dhabi, London, New York, Seattle, Sydney, and Tacoma, with its International Headquarters in ADGM, Abu Dhabi. As of 30 September, GQG Partners employed approximately 241 people globally, including 20 professionals in ADGM and assets under management of US$149.2 billion.

ADX offers a diverse and growing range of innovative ETFs. Earlier this month, the exchange listed two South Korea-focused ETFs managed by Hanwha Asset Management, providing local and regional investors with exposure to the country's advanced manufacturing, technology, defense, and aerospace sectors.

About Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange (ADX)

The Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange (ADX) was established on 15 November 2000 pursuant to Local Law No. (3) of 2000, which granted the exchange legal rights with independent financial and administrative status, as well as the necessary supervisory and executive powers necessary to carry out its functions. On 17 March 2020, the ADX was converted from a public entity into a Public Joint Stock Company (PJSC) in accordance with Law No. (8) of 2020.

The ADX Group, a market infrastructure group comprising the exchange (ADX) and its post-trade ecosystem, including its wholly owned subsidiaries AD Depository and AD Clear, was established. Through its integrated and globally aligned business structure, the ADX Group supports efficient, transparent, and resilient capital markets across trading, clearing, settlement, and custody.

The Group provides an efficient and regulated marketplace for the trading of securities, including equities issued by public joint-stock companies, bonds issued by governments and corporations, exchange-traded funds (ETFs), and other financial instruments approved by the UAE Capital Market Authority.

The ADX is the second-largest exchange in the Arab region by market capitalization. Its strategy of delivering stable financial performance through diversified revenue streams is aligned with the UAE's national development agenda, "Towards the Next 50", which aims to build a sustainable, diversified, and high-value-added economy.
